YANNIS KOTSIRAS

whatever you remember never dies...

2 hours unplugged

Enjoy and Share presents one of the most successful Greek singers: Yannis Kotsiras in the fantastic venue the Union Chapel.

Years go by, but songs stay. Some of them though stay out of play lists. Those are songs Yannis Kotsiras comes to share with us.

All the songs we have loved and we all use to hum, but rarely listen to in his concerts are gathered in a two-hour music performance.

Favorite ballads as “Tipota” (nothing) or “Pos tha pethano ego yia sena” (that I will die for you) and many more, find their place among other well-known songs, old and new. From his very first album, up to his latest “O, ti Thymasai den pethanei” (Whatever you remember never dies), in an unplugged program, focused in human relations and in the serenity songs emit, without tensions.

Three great musicians share the stage with him:

Akis Katsoupakis plays the piano, also responsible for the arrangements, Vangelis Machairas plays the full range of string instruments and Kostas Michalos plays the guitars.
